CHAPEL

• #1, September 27, 1976

- Tuesday - "A Festival of Beginning" - Join with us as we begin the academic year with a faculty procession and a time of worship. Dr. David A. Hubbard will be the speaker.
- Wednesday - Dr. David Allan Hubbard - This is the first in a ten-week series of expositions of Fuller Theological Seminary's Statement of Faith by Dr. Hubbard. The title of this morning's lecture is "The God Whom We Worship." All campus offices will be closed to allow staff and administrators to share in this important event.
- Thursday - Dr. Robert Boyd Munger - Senior Professor of Evangelism and Church Strategy will be the speaker.
- Friday - CONVOCATION: Dr. Arthur Glasser, Dean of the School of World Mission will lead a discussion on the political and theological problems in South Africa.

In order for new residents (or old residents!) to vote in the general election in November they must be registered to vote by Oct. 1. The League of Women Voters will have a voter registration table in the lobby of Payton Hall on Wednesday Sept. 29. You may also obtain a "register by mail form" in the Dean of Students office.

THE STUDENT HANDBOOK is an important item for every student. These will be ready for distribution to all students on September 29. When you receive your copy in your mail box, please take time to read it keep it for reference throughout the school year.

Please confirm your registration by picking up your personal class schedules on Monday Sept. 27, beginning at 7:30 a.m. in the Garth.

All students who had preregistered but who did not walk through the registration line have been provisionally registered. They must make Business Office arrangements and pick up their schedules in the late registration area at the west end of 101 Payton Hall by noon on Tuesday, Sept. 28, or their classes will be dropped.

MAIL CALL! All students - if you have not checked with the mailroom for your post box assignment; please be sure to do this as soon as possible. All student mailboxes are listed by number. Please ask anyone who might write to you to include your box number in the address. Should you wish to send a note a master list is kept in the mailroom. It is requested that all inter-office (and tender interpersonal notes) be placed in envelopes or on note paper no smaller than envelope size (6" x 4") as small notes are easily lost. Thank You.

Presbyterian Seniors: Ordination Exams are being given November 11-13. A list of those who have filed an application to write the exams is posted in the Placement Office. Please check the list. If you are planning to write the exams and your name does not appear on the list, let us know. Exams are sent individually for each person who has filed an application.

Presbyterian Students planning to write the Bible Content Exam must fill out an application to take the exam. Persons eligible are those under care of presbytery and in the next to last year of seminary. Applications are available in the Placement Office. Deadline for filing an application is Friday Oct. 1.

A meeting for Presbyterian seniors will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 20, to review the Placement/Dossier process and to also discuss the impending ordination exams.

Summer field education participants: A one-day workshop has been scheduled for you on Wednesday, October 13, in lieu of the regular Education for Ministry seminars. Credit for four units for the summer will not be turned in to the Registrar's Office until the workshop requirement has been satisfied. Please check with the Education for Ministry office.

OT Graduate Students - There will be a meeting of the OT graduate department today (Monday, Sept. 27) at 4:00 p.m. in the Geneva Room. All graduate students in OT are urged to attend.

STUDENT WIVES: You are invited to Women's Institute's first FALL FESTIVAL OF FOREIGN FOODS AND FUN AT FULLER which will happen on October 2 from 12:30 to 4:00 in the Refectory. It's a foreign food tasting delight and also a great introduction to new Fuller friends. Cost is only 50¢ so be there. If you can come, call Elizabeth Zook at Fuller extension #189 to RSVP if possible.

F.T.S. Babysitting Co-op: Fall meeting, Tuesday night, Sept. 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Geneva Room. All members and anyone interested in joining are invited. For further information call Judy Kuiper at 794-1740, or Betsy Burroughs at 795-8219. (We trade sitting with each other, we are not a day care center.)

Bienvenidos a todos los que hablan el bello idioma de Cervantes. Nos quedamos muy contentos de que Ud. ya forma parte de la familia del Seminario. Queremos informarle que estamos en nuestras nuevas oficinas (150 N. Oakland Ave.) frente al edificio principal, donde no ponemos a sus gratas ordenes. Si hay algo en que podamos ayudarle, tenga la bondad de venir a buscarnos y veremos que podemos hacer. Otra notita: esperamos tener un devocional en español cada lunes a las 10:00 a.m. en el aula de clase de nuestro edificio (150 N. Oakland Ave.) Le esperamos!

Six Christian Churches in La Canada (just west of Pasadena) are sponsoring an evangelistic crusade October 3-6. Bishop Festo Kivengere of Uganda (African Enterprise) will be speaking. Fuller Seminary students and spouses have been invited to serve as counselors at the meetings. There will be a training session Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. (Sept. 27) at the Lutheran Church in the Foothills, 1700 Foothill Blvd. in La Canada. The counselors must be able to come to at least two of the crusade meetings. If you are interested come to the training event. Phone Jim Hires at 796-3089, if you need transportation.

A BIG THANK YOU once again to all those who helped in any way with last week's New Student Banquet....it was a great success. Dave Daubenspeck, Student Council Vice-President.

The Teagle Foundation in New York City provides scholarships for employees and the children of present, retired and deceased employees of Exxon Corporation. If you qualify, please see Dr. Schaper or Mr. Curley.

Are you going to F.A.S.C.? We're going to F.A.S.C. and we certainly hope you are planning to go also. What is F.A.S.C.? F.A.S.C. is the Fuller All Seminary Conference, at Arrowhead Springs, Friday and Saturday, October 29 and 30. F.A.S.C. is open to all students, faculty, staff, trustees and administrators which includes everyone at Fuller. Our three exciting speakers are: Arch Hart (School of Psychology), Roberta Hestenes (School of Theology) and Charles Kraft (School of World Mission). More details will be upcoming in the Semi, and you will have the opportunity to register for the conference during F.A.S.C. Fortnight (Oct. 4-8, 11-15), when our registration table will be set up in the garth.

Anyone interested in running 5 to 9 miles daily, please call Logan Baldwin at 796-5440. I'm looking for (a) running partner(s).

American Baptist students who have been invited to the national Seminars Conference at Green Lake should by all means attend. Here is a great opportunity to get acquainted first-hand with denominational officials and programs, with other seminarians from other schools. Besides, consider the possible impact of a large delegation from Fuller Seminary with its special positive commitment to Christ, its superior knowledge of the Scriptures and doctrine and church history, its extra measure of love and grace, its great dynamic for service with God's People! A special meeting of those attending will be held on Monday evening, October 18th, at 7:30 p.m.

AMERICAN BAPTISTS! Prayer fellowship every Monday morning, 10:00 a.m., in Prof. Larson's office, first floor, 145 N. Oakland. September 27th is first meeting.

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD POLITY students (MN563): Please note first day of class meeting will be 8-10 a.m., Thursday, October 7. You may pick up an advance copy of the course syllabus from Karen Oyer, secretary to Mr. Spittler. The office is located on the first floor of Slessor (alias "145"): enter front, bear left!

"The Draft" is coming. Sign-up for intra-mural football this week in the mailroom. What kind of talent has admissions given us this year? Will T. Headington try for an unprecedented fourth Icthus Bowl victory? Will M. Nazarian ever be on a winner? These are just some of the important questions waiting for the season to begin!

Urgently Needed: Baby sitters to assist in the childcare facilities at Arrowhead Springs during the All-Seminary Conference. (Children's ages range from infant through pre-school.) If you would be interested in helping our childcare coordinator at the Conference, please contact Larry Burroughs at 795-8219 or drop a note in my box (962). We are also looking for couples who would be willing to open their homes to older children of couples who are planning to attend the All-Seminary Conference. If interested, contact Larry Burroughs.

Missions prayer meeting! Please join with us in the Student Council room at 10:00 a.m. each Monday. Come and increase your vision for world evangelization!

THE COMMUNITY AT WORSHIP

The Seminary launches this quarter an exciting commitment to worship together once each week as an entire community. All Seminary offices, including the Library, will be closed to allow staff and faculty to participate. During the first quarter Dr. Hubbard will be speaking on the Fuller Statement of Faith and the meetings will be each Wednesday (except the third week of October, when we will meet on Friday, Oct. 22). We are confident that this will meet with enthusiastic response and encourage each one to come on time and fill the Sanctuary of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church as we meet together before God.
